

NONPROFITS

Non-profit consulting and support

Crisis Pregnancy Center

The challenge

This organization provides counseling and care for expecting and new mothers. As a non-profit organization that often operates on donated computer hardware, their infrastructure inventory requires special attention.

What we did

navitend identified the equipment and solutions which can "stay" and which hardware and software requires replacing.

The result

navitend worked with this organization and its board members to identify a cost-effective plan to upgrade their infrastructure and aid them in providing service to their clients.
